Re: In re Amaranth Natural Gas Commodities Litig.
No. 07-CV-6377 (SAS)

Dear Judge Scheindlin:

We represent Defendant Brian Hunter in the above-referenced matter. We write to clarify one item relating to the stipulation and proposed order concerning the filing and briefing schedule that was submitted by plaintiffs by letter on February 14, 2008.

When consenting to the stipulation on Mr. Hunter's behalf, we communicated to plaintiffs that Mr. Hunter did so without prejudice to his ability to raise any objections to or defenses based upon service of process or the exercise of personal jurisdiction, which objections and defenses Mr. Hunter reserves and does not waive. In authorizing plaintiffs to execute the stipulation on our behalf, we had asked that language to this effect be included in the stipulation. We understand that our request for inclusion of this language in the stipulation was inadvertently overlooked.

so ordered.

In any event, we wish the record to be clear that Mr. Hunter's agreement to the stipulation is given without waiver to service of process and personal jurisdiction objections and defenses. We have conferred with plaintiffs and understand that their position is that the stipulation does not waive any defenses that Mr. Hunter has to personal jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

Leif T. Simonson
